September 12, 2014

"Day of Caring" Returns to VBCDC

The United Way's Day of Caring program provided the Virginia Beach CDC with help from 9 eager volunteers. One group was from Regent University and one group was from SwimWays.

The volunteers provided invaluable service to fully landscape 2 of our multifamily developments that serve a total of 30 low-income persons with disabilities. Our neighbors certainly appreciate the help, and so do we.